"THE COLOR LINE."

[From Town Talk.]

I see that a so-called editorial writer, I see that a so-called editorial writer, writing under the head "The Color Line" in The Bee gives the editor of the Post a good laying out in the issue of his paper. I think this negro, as well as a good many others of his kind, "is off his base." While I have not much love for the Washington Post, it is fell to say as he does, that "the not much love for the Washington Post, it is folly to say as he does, that "the Post on last Sunday took occasion to give vent to its pent-up indignations and its long-hidden venomous prejudice against the Afro-Americans," "The Post is a hide-bound poisonous sheet which has no love or respect for sheet, which has no love or respect for Afro-Americans, and the sooner the people of this city repudiate such a rattlesnake paper by prohibiting their boys from selling it on the street and the people discontinue patronizing it, there is no doubt but that a very good lesson will be taught thereby." This is plain every day nonsense, and it takes a "nigger" to write such a thing. Will the Afro-American never realize that the time has not yet come when they can be received as socially equal to the whites. The colored man well knows that if he goes to a first-class hotel he is going to be turned down, so where is the necessity in his going there? He knows beforehand that he will be invulted and he circult. will be insulted and he simply in-yites this. It is a pity we have so few educated colored people in this city. There are too many idotic monkeys, who, having obtained a common school education, suddenly acquire the idea that they know it all and not only attempt to give the white people (who must be acknowledged are in every way their superiors), pointers, but they have an idea they must have their noses everywhere. I suppose the colored people in this District will take exception to my remarks, and will also say that I "gave vent to my pent-np indignation and long venomous preju-dice against the Afro-American." This is, however, not the case. As long as the colored people remember their places and do not try to encroach upou their rights, which they have for centuries past, and will no doubt for centuries to come, belong to the whites, I am their friend. I think it is about time for the colored folks to wake up to the fact that the time has not yet arrived when they will be received as our brothers and sisters.

Town Talk is a Society Journa published in this city, and from the above is an evidence of the preju dice sentiment of its editors and tion. their medocre birth. Such sentiments only eminate from people of low degree, who have endeavored to aspire in the world, but failed and political stroke. are making every effort to place the Afro-American upon an equality with them.

The Afro-Americans are too polished, too intelligent and too highly educated to descend to the level of Town Talk.

The refined and educated white lady, not only of this community, but east of Mason's and Dixon's line are willing and ready to join in the holy bonds of wedlock with high-toned colored gentlemen were it not for public sentiment.

The Afro-American, however, is not at all anxious to amalgamate ; he is satisfied with his present social status and all he asks is, to be let alone and be permitted to exercise his rights and privileges guaranteed by the constitution.

The Town Talk editors, were no doubt, too mean or too poor to have sucked from mama's breast during the reconstruction period.

It is the high-toned Southern lady or gentleman or the off-springs from the royal Southern blood who can testify to the worth and value of the slave.

As we said before, you are willing to eat what we cook, suck from the breast of the slave mother, whose substances enter every vital ergan of your body, and still you object to the Afro-American sitting by your side in theatres, street-cars, and other places of amusements.

The BEE would be pleased to know where the consistency is. The Afro-American is able to give pointers to all classes of citizens, and the time has come when Talk must take a back seat.

This is an age of progress and civilization and such vernacular as that which eminates from an antibellium journal is fit for barbarians and not for the enlightened age.

Onward is our cry and before many months the Afro-American will be among the gods, feasting upon fruits from Paradise and sprinkling his knowledge, polished manners and the liberal arts over the heads of ignorance and idiocy of Town Talk to enable them to be up to date in civilization and progress.

the London Papers Regard th Speeches in Parliament.

London, Feb. 12.—The Times this morning says editorially: "The speeches in both houses of Parliament are a substantial proof of the earnest desire of the English people to maintain cordial relations with America." An editorial in the Standard express es the similar view that Lord Rose-bery's and Sir William Vernon Harcourt's admirably conceived expression will allay whatever remains of ruffled sentiment in America in regard to the Monroe dootrine.

The Chronicle, in its editorial columns this morning, claims the credit for the conversion of England to arbitration and says: "The speeches in Parliamen show that we have reached the point where a solution is a certainty. Schomburgk line is as defunct as the boundaries of Wessex.

The Daily News says: "It is not quite clear what Lord Salisbury means by s mixture of arbitration and negotiation. He tried a mixture before when he offered to arbitrate only a part of the boundary dispute. He cannot intend to repeat the dose."

The Douglass Day was observed at the Bethel Literary on last Tuesday

Dr. C. Carroll Stewart of The BEE has just returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he has been attending the Medical College or Meharry Medical Department of Central Tennessee College from which place he graduated in medicine with high honors.

The diploma from this college is recognized in 14 States without the State Board Examination, the only college white or colored in the South o recognized.

Aside from being a good physician,
Mr. Stewart is one of the best news-Mr. Stewart is one of the best news-paper correspondents in this country. He is descriptive as well as argumen-tive in his writings and his letters have always commanded attention whenever or wherever they appeared.
The graduating exercises were held Tuesday February 4th.

Dr. Ed. D. Williston, formerly the Chief Interne at the Freedmen's Hospital, will soon lead to the altar one of Vashington's fairest maids.
Dr. Williston, after he resigned from that institution commenced the prac-tice of his profession and from all reports he is doing well.

The prospective bride was formerly resident of Georgia.

THE FIRST LADY.

The presence of Mrs. Cleveland at the concert for the benefit of the Home for Friendless Girls at the Metropolifor Friendless Girls at the Methypolitan Church, Friday evening, February 14, was a great surprise to most of the condense audience. Although it was advertised that the First Lady of the Land would be present, few believed it and many paid their fifty cents just to see Mrs. Cleveland in a colored it and many paid their fifty cents just to see Mrs. Cleveland in a colored church. The lady seemed to enjoy the musicale very much, especially the last piece rendered by the Metropolitan Choir. 'Steal away Home,' which was sang very effectively under the leadership of Prof. J. T. Layton.

In vocal combat, A, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" B, "Then You Will Remember Me," by the Orpheus Glee Club was also well received. Mrs. Lula Joy Brooks sang exceptionally well as did also Mr. Edward T. Harris, who responded to a encore and as a whole all the talent connected displayed great ability beconnected displayed great ability be-fore their honored guest. The concert was under the management of Major C.A. Fleetwood, who feels justly proud of being the only colored gentleman who has managed a concert in this who has managed a concert in city and succeeded in having such honorable guest as the President's wives and their immediate friends.

During President Hay's administra-tion, his wife, Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes graced one of Major Fleetwood's cor-cert in aid of St. Luke's Church. Prof. Lester F. Ward of the Smith-sonian Institute lectured before the pupils of the High School last week on "Heredity vs. Opportuniiy." Super-intendents G. F. Cook and Powell were present, also Trustee B. K. Bruce who introduced Prof. Ward. Prof. Ward explained that the lecture was one which had been delivered ten years one which had been delivered ten years ago before the National Biological Society, and was repeated by request of Mr. Cook. All of his remarks were warmly applauded.

The people of Milwaukee are much aroused over the brutal arrest of a colored lady for being in the street unaccompanied at an early hour in the evening. The woman was thrust into a filthy cell and it is not expected that she will recover her fright, and if she does, she will no doubt be a mental does, she will no doubt be a mental wreck. After the officers found out their mistake they released the woman from prison.

"BAT" SHEA EX_UUTED.

The Murderer of Robert Ross Dies in he Dannemora, Feb. 12 - Rartholomew

Shea was put to death in the electrical chair in Clinton prison at 9:58 o'clock yesterday morning. The twenty-seven witnesses were made up almost exclusively of physicians and newspaper men, all present in official capacities. At a signal from Warlen Thuyer the march was taken up, ending in the death chamber. It was just 9:55 o'clock when the procession entered the room. First came Warden Thayer and Deputy McKenna, and immediately behind them was Shea, escorted by Vicar-General Swift, of Troy, and Father Belanger, of Dannemora.

Shea's face was pale. He walked firmly to the chair, and during the minute it took to affix the straps he gazed calmly around the room. His eyes were bright and he looked more like a spec-tator than a man to be put to death. The current was turned on at 5:58 o'clock and continued for one minute and twenty-one seconds, when it was shut off and Shea was pronounced dead The highest voltage was 1,800. This, however, was continued only eleven seconds, when it was reduced to 150 volts, and continued at that voltage until the end. The autopsy revealed nothing out of the ordinary.

The following letter from Shea was opened after the execution: "On the verge of death I desire to say that I do not think I had a fair trial. Extraordinary means were taken to convict me, and testimony given by Mr. Larsing was absolutely untrue. 1 am sorry for Ross's family, and for the gloom it has cast over them, but I did not go to the polls on election day to shoot Robert Ross, and had no inten-tion of injuring him. I die for a crime I did not commit. I am an innocent man. I bid you all farewell.

"FIARTHOLOMEW SHEA." CONGRESS HAS THE PAPERS.

President Remits 2,000 Documents Relating to the Cuban Revolution.

Washington, Feb. 12. - President Cleveland sent to the House yesterday, in response to a resolution, 2,000 letters of the Secretary of State, Minister De Lome, Consul-General Williams and others relative to the Cuban rebellion. These are not the whole of the correspondence, but only such as the President thinks will not embarrass the Administration's diplomacy upon publica-tion. Now that the correspondence is in, a report on Cuban belligerency may be expected before long, and in view of the known American spirit of certain members, its character may be guessed. The documents begin with the President's proclamation of neutrality of June 17, 1895, and include correspondence regarding the right of the Consul-General to present remonstrances, the progress of the insurrection, the protection and destruction of American property in Cuba, and the arrests or expulsion of about thirty American citizens. The bulky documents remitted go over the whole ground of correspondence, from the letter of Consul Hyatt, dated February 23, 1895, advising the State Department of the prospective breaking out of the rebellion, to the most recent reports and documents receled or sent upon the Cuban question, whether relating to grievances caused by the Spanish authorities or the revolutionary forces.

WALLER IS GUILTY.

Secretary Olney Sends a Report of His Case to Congress.
Washington, Feb. 12.-The President sent to Congress yesterday a report from Secretary Olney and all the correspondence in the case of John L. Waller, ex-United States Consul to Tamatave, and now confined in a French prison under conviction of treason. Secretary Olney says Waller was unquestionably guilty of the offense charged, and that the penalty inflicted would be considered exceedingly moderate; but the French Government made an offer to release Waller from further imprisonment and pardon his offense on condition that the affair be thereby terminated as between the two governments, and that the United States should make no claim for damages in behalf of the accused ex-Con-sul based on his arrest, conviction and imprisonment. With reference to the Waller rubber concession, which he claimed was confiscated by France, Secretary Olney says there is no proof of the nature, extent, validity or value of the concession, and that it is certain that the French authorities have always held the concession to be without any validity.

Burglars Set the Table and Leisurely Ate

Supper.
Indianapolis, Feb. 12.—The home of Governor Matthews, in this city, was entered by burglars last night. The Governor's gold watch and $12 in money were stolen. The burglars set the table in the dining room, placed Mr., Matthews's "company" china on it. brought cold victuals from the pantry and placed them on the table. The meal appears to have been leisurely eaten. It is supposed that the thieves were in the house an hour or more. The family did not know till this morning that they had had guests in the night. On the dining room table the family found the cards of "William Careful" and "Strange N. Manner" lying by two plates. The burglars washed their sup-per down with a bottle of sherry. A box of cigars was missing from the mantel. One perfecto was left at the Governor's plate, with a note which read: "To His Excellency—Sorry you do not feel well enough to join us. We drink your health and leave you a cigar. Hope you will recover soon, but not too soon."

Washington, Feb. 11.—A big box left at the Baltimore and Ohio depot in this city to be forwarded by express bore two addresses, and the employes of the express company were in doubt as to where it should be sent. They finally opened it and discovered the bodies of two women, entirely nude. One was that of an old colored woman and the other that of a white woman about

After working for some time on the nurder theory, the detectives came to the conclusion that the bodies had been shipped by grave robbers. It was learned that a regular system exists for the shipping of bodies stolen from the cemeteries about Washington. The work has been carried on with astonishing boldness, and dozens of bodies been sent out recently. One of the addresses on the box opened yester day was Angus McLane, No. 223 Pelstreet, Detroit, Mich., and the other was that of a Baltimore party. WEALTH FROM A BOND BID.

Poor Clerk Sees $100,000 Profit and Boston, Mass., Feb. 11.-Old heads in the banking business here are aston ished at the successful plunge made by Abraham White for a share of the new issue of bonds. Up to a week ago White was an unassuming clerk, on a modest salary with not a dollar in the world. His wife had some real estate in her name out in Reading, and they negotiated a mortgage on it, enough to secure the option on a little gold.

With this White made a bid for som of the issue, and has secured $1,000,000 in his own name, at 111.63, while to his wife was awarded $500,000, at the same figure. He had everything to gain an nothing to lose, even had he been awarded the full $5,080,000, the aggre-gate of his bids. By a bold stroke he has made himself the envy of hundreds of men who are out in the cold

White has already netted $10,940 profit y selling $200,000 at 117, and he is hold-ng off for $100,000 bonus on his bargain, having refused $10,000 less than that He says that he expects to realize $150, 100 on his foresight, as he has no doubt that the figure will run up to 120 or

Chicago, Feb. 11.-Herman Dahlka is dying of knife wounds, inflicted last night by his brother Carl in a duel. The brothers, with their families, met at a christening at the house of their sister, in Blackhawk street, and engaged in a bitter quarrel. "Get out your knife," cried Herman, "and come into the Pushing the women away, the two men sprang down the steps to the yard in the rear of the house. Each had a keen-edged pocket knife in his hand, and with angry cries they jumped at one another and began slashing. Suddenly Herman gave a scream of agony and fell, Carl's knife having pierced his left eye. In the meantime the whole neighborhood had been aroused, and men and women gathered along the tence, watching the deadly duel and not daring to interfere.

A policeman arrived just too late to catch Carl, who jumped over the fence and fled. Herman's face and head were slashed in a dozen different directions and the left eye hung from its socket One cut extended from the crown of the head to a point below the left eye and another cut had torn almost half the scalp off.

COBBLERS' CHILDREN.

Wife of an Inspector of a Humane Society Charged With Treating Children Brutally Montreal, Feb. 11.-Mrs. Cythia Bell wife of the inspector of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at Ottawa, has been arrested, charged with shocking cruelty to children. The information charges her with binding the tongue of one of her grandchildren, a ten-year-old girl, until mortification set in, and of stripping the other, a boy fourteen years old, of his clothing and putting him in a cold garret until his limbs were frozen.

Last week the boy was placed in the Water street hospital, Ottawa, for treatof his feet. Since then five toes have had to be amputated. The little girl is suffering from gangrene of the tongue The matter has been brought to the attention of the Children's Ald Society.

Mashes fingers and strains back handling heavy trunks. Wants all his friends to try it.

RALEIGE, N. C., Jan. 27, 1806

Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y. Gentlemen:-I was always having Rheumatism until I tried Mexican Mustang Liniment, and it took all the pain away. I think it the best remedy I ever use for such things as bruises and strains. I often mash my fingers and strain my back handling heavy trunks around the hotel, and I always find that Mexican Mustang Liniment will fix me all right again. I rub it in well and continue to use it until the pain has left the afflicted parts. I wish all my friends would give it a trial, and I know they will never use anything else. It is a mighty good thing for rheum tism I know from personal use. I always recommend it to all my friends.
